Again at the House of Europe, where the EPC Treaty text is being disposed of. Long talks with Mollet, Henri Fresnay, Cavaletti and many others. We went some 20 kilometers into the country to lunch with the Monnets on princely dishes — the Etzels, Tommy and ourselves.

At six o'clock E, Tommy and I met the American correspondents in the Maison Rouge Bar. David Schoenbrun, Teddy White, Digges of the Baltimore Sun, and Dynin of the AP. Afterwards all except the last two, who were otherwise occupied, dined with us on the substantial fare of the Restaurant Zimmer, featured by Alsatian sauerkraut and pork products.
